ORIGIN

1. Approximately six to eight thousand Red Army troops were stationed during the months of June and July 1946 in the new German barracks near the edge of the town of Stargard. They were also located in the immediate vicinity of the town, on farms, and in the small communities of landed estates which have been evacuated by civilians.
2. Armament observed consisted of motorized infantry, self-propelled mortars, motorized artillery and Panzer as well as hospital and command units.
3. The Russians have prepared a large area for the drilling of troops in the neighborhood of the Ihna River, southeast of Stargard. They regularly practice firing, especially with self-propelled mortars.
4. There are approximately 2,000 - 3,000 Polish infantry and motorized artillery troops stationed in Stargard. Three German barracks which were severely damaged have been temporarily repaired.
